DANKE , DAYTON!

Your support for the Germanfest Picnic weekend in our new location was incredible!

Please tell us about your experience!

VIELEN DANK!

A thousand thank yous to all those who helped with the Grand Raffle Booth.

I would like to give a special thanks to my co-chair and brother, Jeff.

Ladies, you know who you are, the baskets look lovely. I couldn't do it without you!

Lori and Jeff

THREE THOUSAND POUNDS of POTATOES!

Not to mention the 330 pounds of bacon! The potato salad could not be done in house with the authentic German taste without all our fantastic volunteers. You are all Wunderkinds! A special shout-out to Jeff Coffey for helping set up potato peeling upstairs for those who can no longer use the stairs. Way to go, Everyone.

The Kitchen Witch (aka Lori)

SPECIAL THANKS

go to Debbie Venys for handling the kitchen during the picnic weekend. She has been a great benefit to our club and the community. Thanks, Debbie! (And it was really great to see Jacob Hellickson on duty in the kitchen all weekend.)

Part of the proceeds from the Germanfest Picnic goes to underwrite scholarships for deserving students who promote the German heritage and culture. Including this year's awards, the Germanfest Picnic scholarship awards have totaled almost $50,000 since the program's inception.

Congratulations to our 2017 winners!
